

ULSTERMEN SIGN SOLEMN COVENANT

They Pledge Themselves to Resist Home Rule for Ireland.

GREAT MEETING IN ULSTER HALL

Minister Declares That Irish Question Is War Against Protestantism and Effort to Establish Catholic Ascendancy—Will Never Accept Parliament at Dublin.

Belfast, Ireland, September 28.—President Edward Carson to-day wrote his name as the first to sign the solemn covenant of the Ulstermen, which binds them "to use all the means that may be found necessary to defeat the present conspiracy to set up home rule in Ireland," and also to refuse to recognize the authority of an Irish Parliament. He was followed by many men who have become leaders in the campaign against home rule, and these were succeeded by thousands of the rank and file of the Orangemen and Unionists in the northern province of Ireland.

Ulster Day, the Orangemen's out-mingling day of protest against home rule, opened with an absolute unanimity that rendered unionists and home rule alike apprehensive as to what might happen.

The people of Ireland, even those responsible for to-day's signature of the formidable "league and covenant," had looked forward to the day's happenings with misgivings.

The weather, which was doubtful early in the day, but before the Ulster men had begun to gather for the religious services, which preceded the signing of the covenant, sunshine flooded the streets.

The town was gaily decorated, the Union Jack being everywhere predominant, one huge national flag enveloping the facade of Ulster Hall, the centre of to-day's proceedings.

Most of the shops and all the big industrial works were closed, so that every man desiring to do so might be able to participate in the manifestation.

The spirit of unity prevail among the Protestant denominations was illustrated by the selection of the officiating clergymen. The Rev. W. McLean, formerly Presbyterian minister, preached the sermon, and he was assisted in the services by ministers belonging to the Anglican, Methodist, Baptist and Congregational Churches.

A semi-military aspect was not lacking in the meeting, as the Ulster Clubs and Orange lodges, wearing bright sashes, acted as a guard of honor standing around the pulpit, while 500 of what is known as the "reserve guard" occupied seats in the gallery.

The great congregation was unable to restrain itself as notable personalities came into the hall. Captain James Craig, the Ulster member from Eastdown, reminded the audience that the service was a religious one, and said that Sir Edward Carson wished to be looked upon as such in the real sense of the word.

When Sir Edward Carson and Frederick E. Smith arrived, however, the people, forgetful of the appeal that had been made, again broke into cheers which continued as the two leaders proceeded to the platform behind the orange flag of the battle of Boyne, presented to Sir Edward Carson in such a dramatic manner last evening.

The Rev. W. McLean's sermon roused the congregation to another burst of cheering which was suppressed from the pulpit. Dr. McLean declared the Irish question at bottom was a war against Protestantism and an attempt to establish Roman Catholic ascendancy in Ireland and to begin the disintegration of the British empire by securing a second Parliament at Dublin. Ulster men were ready, he said, to accept almost any program of social and political reform, but they would not have home rule. The service concluded with the singing of the national anthem.

ALLEGED MURDERER
Negro Arrested—Saw Car on Street—William Charles Young, blacksmith, colored, was arrested yesterday afternoon by Patrolman Duffy at twenty-fourth and Main streets and held as a fugitive from justice in Rocky Mount, N. C., where he was said to be wanted for a murder committed three years ago. It is understood that Charles was shot and killed by a white man, while shot and a half pint of cold water. This is much better than most ready-made hair-tonics, as it contains nothing to make the hair coarse, sticky or "strawny." It will remove the dandruff and stop your hair from coming out. You will find it an ideal dressing for the hair and very refreshing to an itching scalp.

Health and Beauty Helps
BY MRS. MAE MARTIN

A. F. S.: To be sure, health and beauty go hand in hand. Indigestion and sluggish liver cause impure blood, which in turn breeds ugly blotches, pimples and skin eruptions, accompanied often by depression, melancholia, and headache. These may be all removed by the judicious use of a simple homemade system-tonic and blood purifier, made as follows: Dissolve one ounce of E. C. C. in one-half cupful of water, then add enough hot water to make a full quart of the remedy. Take a tablespoonful three times a day. It stimulates the digestion, arouses a torpid liver, purifies the blood and gives tone to the whole system. By a nature process the complexion clears, the "feeling" vanishes, and energy and enjoyment of life return.

Mrs. O.: You can make your eyebrows grow thick and glossy by applying pyroxin with finger and thumb and forefinger. This makes them grow long and curly. Be careful, however, and don't get pyroxin where no hair is wanted.

A. E. C.: Bleaching the hair will not remove it. Make thick paste with powdered borax and water, spread on hair not wanted, then after two or three minutes rub off, wash the skin and the hair is gone. Be careful. This treatment will banish the most stubborn growth and does not injure even a sensitive skin.

G. E. A.: It may be all right to use dry shampoo powder where you are very careful to brush out all of the powder; otherwise it will clog up the pores and cause dandruff, the very thing you should avoid. To keep your hair looking bright and healthy and make it stay in curl, you must use a shampoo that contains "free" alkali, as soap and most shampoos do. Dissolve a teaspoonful of caustic soda in a cup of hot water and use a shampoo that contains it. It will remove all excess oil and dirt, and leave your scalp free from irritation. This shampoo dries quickly without causing streaks, faded patches in the hair. It will make your hair clean and fluffy so it will stay up and look nice without the use of a hair net or veil.

Doris: If you wish to make a greenish complexion cream-jelly that will quickly clear your complexion of freckles, tan and sunburn without the necessity of several months' treatment, you can easily prepare it at home by mixing together an ounce of ammonia, two teaspoonfuls glycerine and one-half pint cold water; stir briskly and let stand overnight. Wherever you frequently rub your face with this an excellent cream for removing wrinkles, blackheads, freckles, roughness and other skin blemishes. It will leave the skin smooth, clear and velvety, and is a matchless preparation for massaging and reducing the size of large pores in the skin.

NAME OF GOWLING TO BE PRESENTED

Governor Wilson, Senator O'Gorman and William J. Bryan would have no more weight than if they had never been born.

Senator O'Gorman is not coming here to fight Murphy. He is coming here to fight every argument and persuasion with Mr. Murphy and his friends in an effort to make him see the utter futility of Governor Dix's renomination.

A number of Syracuse Democrats have the nomination of Charles T. Remond, of Ithaca, for Governor.

John A. Mason, secretary of the Democratic State Committee, and Governor Dix's secretary, arrived to-night. He was confident that the Governor is to be renominated.

Straw, Off in Campaign.
(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
New York, September 28.—Candidate Oscar Straus started off his active campaigning for Governor to-night with a slip and a roar and a "whoop," the Bull Moose cheer. He took a swing around Brooklyn, beginning with a dinner at the Montauk Club, and then starting off with a long trail of automobiles strung out behind him for a whirlwind tour of the town.

In all, he spoke at six jammed halls, where the main points his speeches were the same. He laid stress on the fact that he is the unopposed candidate of an unopposed people.

"I'm not a politician," he declared, "and it is not my ambition to develop into one. If I am elected, I propose to give a plain, honest, business administration. Every dollar that comes from taxing the people I propose to spend honestly for the people. If a measure comes before me the scales on which I will weigh it will have on one side the question, 'Is this measure a good measure for the people?'"

Mrs. Straus accompanied her husband on the swing, and in each hall she received a tremendous and hearty cheer as did her husband.

At one meeting in Clermont Avenue Rink, Mr. Straus addressed 8,000 persons. At this meeting he made a great hit when he referred to Mr. Barnes's designation of him as a mediocre man.

"Mr. Barnes says that if elected I will be a failure," he said. "I regard that as the greatest kind of praise, because I hope my administration will be a failure in the eyes of all the bosses."

Rev. Bahke to Hospital.
Mrs. George W. Bahke is at the Virginia Hospital for an operation upon her throat. The operation will be performed by Dr. W. P. Mercer, assisted by Dr. William T. Oppenheimer.

Assistant Medical Director.
Dr. George C. Hall, of New York, has been made assistant medical director of the Life Insurance Company of New York, serving under Dr. H. Cabell Tabb, who has been medical director of the company for more than twenty-five years. Dr. Hall will make his future home in Richmond.

TOO MANY PUNS ON NAME
So Charles Arrested on It Charged to Nittingale.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
New York, September 28.—Charles Arrested, who lives in Granite Falls, N. Y., but boards at 174 Fifth Avenue, got permission from Supreme Court Justice Pendleton to-day to change his name to Charles Nittingale.

Arrested says he is "unable to enjoy any social functions," and is "constantly teased" because his friends make puns on his name. They suggest, he said, that as he was arrested so long it would be a good thing if he could be indicted, and that "not only his father, but his whole family were arrested."

In granting the change the court said Nittingale was also acceptable to the punsters' art.

CLASS WILL STAND BY ITS MEMBERS

University of North Carolina Juniors Protest Against Expulsion.

PRESIDENT VENABLE BLAMED

Appeal Will Be Taken Over His Head to Board of Trustees.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
Chapel Hill, N. C., September 28.—The vigorous investigation of the hazing situation at the University of North Carolina, which has been inaugurated since the death of young Rand, and which developed such a sensation in the expulsion and suspension of sixteen students, caused no additional expulsions to-day. President Venable reports. The called meeting of the executive committee of the board of trustees in Raleigh on Monday will consequently in particular consider the action taken in the case of the sixteen students that have already been dismissed, and since so much resentment has been expressed by friends of those parties, it is likely that a few of them will appear before the executive committee and plead injustice on the grounds of being dismissed for acts of hazing engaged in last session. At least one student that has been suspended emphatically states he will contest the legality of his expulsion, declaring that the charges brought against him are infinitely small, and for conduct of last session.

The junior class further outspokenly expressed its resentment at the expulsion of more than half its members when a second meeting was held this afternoon. The meeting emphasized the opinion of yesterday that members of the class should not be expelled for conduct last year, and puts the blame on the shoulders of President Venable for not investigating the shooting-up of Richard's Hotel annex last session. The class in its last analysis went on record by a vote of two to one that it was with members of the class that were expelled and passed resolutions to draw up a letter to that effect.

SEEK FOR LEARNING
Endless Chain of Coupon Clippers Get Dictionaries—All Ready for Shipment.

Join the army of the well informed—get a dictionary.

The recruiting station and commissary of this newly equipped multitude will play its part in bettering conditions and pushing to the front in the business world in this Dictionary Department, where the doors closed last night after having distributed hundreds of volumes to well-pleased persons.

"I don't know of any better plan that you could hit on to benefit the great bulk of the people." That is what one of the grateful recipients of one of the New Websterian 1912 Dictionaries, Illustrated, which The Times-Dispatch is giving away for six coupons clipped from consecutive issues of the paper and a small expense writes. He surely judging from the wisely that he realized, judging from the endless chain of coupon clippers which has passed throughout this part of the country as the result of the great offer.

This Dictionary is NOT published by the original publishers of Webster's Dictionary or by their successors.

The work of keeping up a supply to meet the dictionary demand is keeping those in charge of the distribution busy, and as it seems that every dictionary sent out brings in more demands, there seems to be no end to the increasing drain upon the source of supply of wordy wisdom.

There is all going to end? The Times-Dispatch does not know. We are sowing the seeds of wisdom over a wide territory and scattering the words that make large vocabulary and better understanding everywhere and anywhere.

The harvest cannot be but beneficial.

AGAIN ARRESTED HERE

Max Glaser Said to Be Wanted on Second Charge in Ohio.
Max Glaser, twenty-seven years old, a merchant of 1 Fell Street, was arrested yesterday by Detectives Atkinson and Bailey at the request of the Canton, O., authorities, who wired that he was wanted on the charge of embezzlement.

Glaser was arrested here some time ago for the same offense and was tried and acquitted of a charge similar to the one on which he is now held. Following his acquittal he is said to have instituted suit for $10,000 for false arrest and returned to this city, where he resumed his occupation as a retail grocer, having bought a store here several months ago.

The accused was taken before Judge D. C. Richardson in the Hustings Court and furnished $500 bail, with J. H. Jonesoff security, for his appearance to-morrow morning in Police Court.

It is expected that an officer from Ohio will come for him with regulations papers some time this week.
